Join Tamarind Tribal Belly Dance in celebrating their 10th Anniversary during Tribal Union 2018

[Milwaukee, Wisconsin]

Tamarind Tribal Belly Dance is celebrating 10 years of innovative dance, engaging performances, and dangerous improve by hosting a jam-packed weekend of workshops, vending, and dancing. Workshops and performances will take place at Tamarind Studio and Next Act Theatre August 9-12, 2018.

Workshops for dancers of all ages and abilities led by Super Beth, CrystalZ, Jeanette, and other members of Tamarind include Tamarind Tribal Transformations (TTT®), ATS® Isolations, Train Like a Tamarind, Super Beth Fan Club, Devilish Details, ATS® Formations and Transitions, ATS® Beginner Workshop, a costuming workshop, and a hair and accessories workshop.

In addition, two amazing shows held at Next Act Theatre on Friday and Saturday evening will feature many talented dancers including Stephanie Masters, Denai's Dancers, Cyndi Elliot, Nazario Chickpeazio, and Milwaukee Irish Dance.

Tamarind Tribal Belly Dance is a belly dance troupe specializing in American Tribal Style (ATS®) and Tamarind Tribal Transformations (TTT®). Tamarind was formed in 2008 by director Jennifer Nolan. In 2014, Elizabeth "Super Beth" Fish took over as director, opening Tamarind Studio in 2015. The troupe is made up of twelve dedicated performers and instructors who strive to provide the best in class entertainment and superior instruction. Tamarind is known nationally and internationally, performing in the Milwaukee area and throughout the United States, and travelling to perform in Chile, China, France, Germany, Hungary, Mexico, and Russia. Tamarind's vision is to provide innovative and engaging entertainment for a variety of audiences, and has been supplying family friendly performances for 10 years.

Tamarind Studio is located at 900 S. 5th Street, Suite 203, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53204.

Next Act Theatre is located at 255 S. Water Street, Milwaukee, WI 53204.
